Business Summary

Turn up the fancy for weddings, parties and corporate events with this elegant photo booth business netting a 49% profit margin! Current owner runs passively, but increase profits by attending the photo booths yourself at each event. An average 4 to 7-hour booking runs at just over $600 with expenses at $150 to $184, resulting in a net profit of over $415 per event! Business is being turned away as the owner is unable to accommodate the demand.

Customers can choose from 4 photo booth styles: wedding, party, VIP and Hollywood. Booths range from a cozy, five-person capacity to a whopping 12-person affair. Photo strips are presented on stylish VIP frames, and those waiting outside can see the fun within the booths broadcast over TV monitors. Party guests are also treated to fun props to be used in the photo booths, and the Hollywood vibe is real with red carpets and stanchions for the VIP experience.

Established in 2010, this business is fully operational and ready for a new owner to step in and begin booking events. Uniformed employees staff the booths as needed for the events, taking care of pre-event setup, helping customers during events, and teardown afterward. The current owner books events and manages the contracted labor. This business could easily continue as a passive operation, but profits would increase by an owner working the events.
