Business Summary

This 30+ year old business covers the gamut of ideas homeowners may have for outdoor living. From decks and patios to pools and grills and stoves, and the supplies and technicians to keep things looking and operating just right, it brings dreams to reality. The business has adapted to changing markets and competition over the years but its reputation for superior customer service has remained constant.

This turnkey operation, open 6 days, presents a buyer with the opportunity to step into an operation with a proven track record, an established reputation and a competent staff to expand an existing business or to operate the single location.
